

Questions for Pin

- What determines if a preschooler is under developed?
- What time is considered the standard for the test?
- Does this change for each gender?
- Does that change with age?
- Does length and weight (BMI) change the target he or she must meet for the test?
- What numbers determine if a child is under-developed?
- How much influence has the age etc. on the BMI?
- How important are specific columns (e.g. age)?
 - How much influence has a specific column
- What about the zip codes?

Todo:

- convert String numbers to floats
- clean Dataset
- Risk profile
- look for mistakes
- standardize data
 - repair data (e.g. date from 14-Mar-2015 to 14/Mar/2015)
- visualize data

Create a risk profile of preschoolers whose development of physical activity is lagging behind